In just five nights you'll experience two delightful cities along with hours of sailing the stunning Seine River. It's all courtesy of smaller, friendlier Boudicca. This is a shorter but sweeter journey of exploration, with chances to see Paris come alive at night and to discover the Claude Monet House and Gardens, among countless other highlights.

After travelling the scenic Seine River, a day in Rouen will give you plenty of time to discover the rich heritage of the city. Among many exciting options, there is the chance to learn the history of Joan of Arc and Richard the Lionheart as you wander the listing streets and admire the traditional half-timbered houses on a walking tour. Or perhaps you'll spend some time exploring the Claude Monet House and Gardens; experiencing the rich flavours of the Normandy region; or embarking on an unforgettable evening journey to see Paris' iconic landmarks in all their illuminated glory.

You will have another opportunity to enjoy the picturesque French countryside from the Seine River as you cruise to the delightful city of Honfleur. A day to explore gives you plenty of time to immerse yourself in this picturesque port.

With charming 16th century streets, elegant churches and its old harbour – a proud reminder of Normandy's maritime past – Honfleur has much to capture your heart.

Elsewhere, there are many quaint cafés that are perfect for watching the world go by. Alternatively, you may be tempted to join a tour to the iconic Bayeux Tapestry.
